

American Society on Aging presents
Serving Older Women with Substance Use Problems

Made possible through a contract from the California Department of Alcohol & Drug Programs
Limited to 300 - Confirmed Registration

November 13, 2009 • 8:00 am – 5:00 pm

Balboa Park Club (Free Parking)

2150 Pan American Road West, San Diego, CA

The full-day program goal will address the social, health and mental health issues of older women with substance use problems that must be integrated into the recovery process.

By attending this conference you will:

- ♥ increase your understanding of older women with substance abuse problems
- ♥ enhance your skills in meeting the needs of this population
- ♥ access helpful resources
- ♥ collaborate with other professionals, family and friends to support and assist older women

CEUs for $15.00

Care/Case Managers
Counselors
Certified Counselors
Mental Health Professionals
Nursing Home Administrators
Occupational Therapists
Social Workers

FREE CEUs

Alcohol/Drug Abuse Counselors
Certified Home Health Aide
Licensed Vocational Nurses
Licensed Clinical Social Worker
Marriage, Family, Child Counselors
Registered Nurse
RCFE Administrators

Leading Presenters will address:

Older Women and Substance Use: Risk Factors, Challenges and Opportunities

Marshall Lewis, MD, DFAPA

Treatment Planning
Mixed Age Treatment

Jane Farmer, CASII, CRPM

Family Roles in Recovery
Older Women and Co-Occurring Disorders

Verda Bradley, PhD, LCSW, BCD

The Power of Empathy and Hope: The Possibility of Change
The Role of Clinicians Screening and Intervention for Older Women

Catherine Royer, MSW, LCSW

Program Moderator Social Supports

Deborah Levan, MPH

Prescription for Peril: Medication Issues in Older Women

Bill Liu, Pharm D, CGP

For complete information and to register online please visit www.asaging.org/aod
To register by phone please call:
1 800-827-1008